

What to expect

Provisioning

Once procurement is complete, you will receive credential information from Broadcom. If you have not received your credential information within the expected timeframe please contact us at help@appdirect.com.

Activation

Your License Keys may be delivered by both Broadcom and AppDirect. Instructions for activation will be included with your keys. These will be accessed via the Broadcom Support Portal.

"The AppDirect Marketplace is your centralized hub for purchasing and provisioning software applications."

Implementation

To assist with using your newly procured subscription you can dive into a variety of helpful documentation developed by Broadcom.

- VMware Learning
- License Key Management for VMware Products

Need help?

Our team is here to assist you with any inquiries related to VMware or the Marketplace itself. Should you encounter any technical difficulties or have questions, please contact us at help@appdirect.com.
